

Modern Slavery Act Statement

Southern Motor Group Limited ("SMG") is a private limited company incorporated in England and Wales with its head office in Croydon, Surrey. Under the Modern Slavery Act 2015, SMG is required to publish a Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for each financial year, setting out the steps it has taken to address the risk of slavery or human trafficking occurring in its supply chain or within its own operations.

This is the statement for SMG for the financial year ended 31 December 2020. SMG has a global annual turnover in excess of £50 million. The statement is updated annually.

As a business SMG has a zero-tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery. SMG acknowledges that modern slavery exists and is a risk to all businesses.

SMG has its main supply chain from Volkswagen Group United Kingdom Limited ("VWGUK") who have a zero-tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery and this is enshrined as one of the core principles of its purchasing policy.

In the event that any of SMG's business partners are found to be engaging in slavery or other unethical working practices, it will take steps to address those issues with this business partner, seek to drive improved standards and, if necessary, terminate its relationships with any such business partners.

SMG are committed to ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

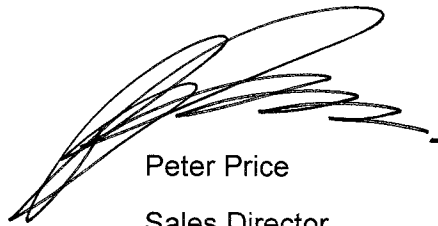

In the forthcoming year SMG will be taking initiatives to identify and mitigate risk. We will be striving to build longstanding relationships with suppliers and subcontractors and make clear our expectations and values.

Approved by the Board of Southern Motor Group Limited on 23rd March 2021.

Signed by

Stephen Price
Financial Director

Peter Price
Sales Director